PROFILE

Greg has been active in the Portland real estate market since 1995. His wide-reaching background with diverse real estate experience provides a solid platform for negotiating lease and sales transactions for office, industrial, and investment properties. Greg has honed his negotiating skills and understands the sales process, while remaining sensitive to the needs of buyers and sellers during the course of the transaction.

Greg manages family real estate investments that include a 125,000 square foot industrial park on Swan Island, as well as other commercial buildings throughout the Portland, Springfield, Las Vegas, and Bellevue markets. This active management provides insights into tenant needs and appropriate landlord responses.
